“OVER HEAD: INNOVATIVE HUMORIST DIRCK TOLL PRESENTS A SHOW OF TWO-WORD TITLES (EXCEPT THIS ONE)”

Calling Dirck Toll an underground Mark Twain might be a stretch, but not by much – Michael Eck, Albany Times Union

Caffè Lena's Black Box Theater invites you to join the excitement as performance humorist Dirck Toll returns with the world premiere of his all-new stage show! Deftly using words and movement, Toll single-handedly takes the audience to strange places with unusual people in bizarre situations, adding up to four hilariously out-of-the-ordinary adventures: Disputing Borders, Brazen Likelihood, Quaggy Motive, and Mutable Neighborhood. Featuring an absentee upholsterer, a quantum judge, a dubious eggshell, and a nebulous factory, Over Head will stretch your mind in directions you don't yet know there are!
